

TEAM COVENANT

We, members of the Team covenant together to:

- * Working together towards our mutual vision.
- * Meeting regularly together to pray, personally share and discuss ministry. This is a priority gathering and includes being on time and remaining for the whole time together.
- * Mutually respect each other shown through confidentiality, loyalty, support and mutual concern.
- * Encouraging and gently challenging one another.
- * Demonstrating integrity through relationships that are transparent, authentic, honest and candid, and based on 'being' rather than 'doing'.
- * Affirming, publicly and privately, each others' gifts and contributions to team and ministry.
- * Being sensitive to each other's needs.
- * Being accountable to each other in regards to our spiritual vitality, self-care, family and marriage care, this covenant and acting on our commitments.
- * Being open to and desirous of hearing God through each other as well as through personal devotional times.
- * Modelling pro-active leadership that is passionate, creative and courageous.
- * Having fun and celebrating together.
