

Chris Jones Bio

Trained in Professional Supervision (Pastoral) 2015 and been practicing since. I have supervised men and women working with churches and care organisations. My experience has been more than 35 years local church in small and large churches in urban and rural settings. I have worked with candidates for ordination in the Anglican Diocese of Sydney for 21 years. I have a passion for helping people run a long race in ministry.