

Frank Wortley (He/Him)

Pastoral Supervisor and Trainer
Lth, BTh, Dip. Min, Grad Dip. Ed, Grad Dip Min, MA
(Pastoral Supervision)
Accredited: AAOS and Chaplaincy Australia

Frank has been married to Brenda for 51 years and has two adult children and two grandchildren. He enjoys the bush as a spiritual haven and has been on four month long French Camino pilgrimage retreats.

He trained at Morling Theological College, is ordained and was in pastoral ministry for 5 years, a Chaplain for 39 years within Army and NSW Health and for 11 years a supervisor and educator with the NSW College of CPE. He has Emotionally Focused Therapy counselling training and is an Associate Lecturer with the Sydney College of Divinity.

Living in Adamstown, Newcastle, he is available for face-to-face supervision or nationally via zoom. He provides supervision to people in a wide range of ministries and has a particular interest in working within innovative ministries and/or those wishing to reach people outside the church.
