

With almost three decades as an Authorised Lay Minister in the Sydney Anglican Diocese, I bring a broad and rich experience of vocational ministry, including a deep understanding of its intrinsic joys and struggles.

I am dedicated to providing a safe, welcoming space, either in person or online, where Pastors and Lay Ministers can reflect on theological, ethical and professional aspects of their work. And, in so doing, gain clarity and fresh perspective on current practice, professional identity, personal and spiritual well-being.

I engage in regular professional development with AAOS and Chaplaincy Australia.

I enjoy life in the Blue Mountains NSW with my husband, spending time with family and friends, good books, and traveling in this wonderful country.

I offer supervision in person, or online via Zoom.
