

Inclusiveness in Church

Woman moment

What are some practices that ensure we hear the voice/heart of everyone in church?

What does an inclusive church look like?

What did you notice?

What comments did you hear/observe?

Any other thoughts?

Often men are the decision makers/spokespeople

Leadership Teams – are they representative?

Having women in key positions

The discomfort factor

The things we say & do are important

Listening to children, the elderly and other cultures

Ensure inclusiveness is not just tokenism
