

Graham Eggins Bio

Graham has had 37 years of full-time Baptist pastoral ministry in 5 different churches. He has had experience in sole, Associate and Senior Pastor roles, in small medium and large congregations, has led a successful church plant and overseen another, and currently involved in yet another church plant. He has also experienced traditional and transitional evangelical churches. Since retiring from full-time ministry Graham has undergone training, and gained experience in Professional Coaching, Chaplaincy and Professional Supervision under the sole trader business name 'Conversations with Graham'. Sensing a renewed call to 1:1 part-time ministry, Graham loves to focus on supporting Christian leaders in this challenging world and 1:1 outreach evangelism. He enjoys the pace of life now, which includes walking, swimming, reading and catching up with children and grandchildren with his wife, Barbara.
