

Ian has 23 years of experience in ministry. Much of this has been in a voluntary capacity such as Eldership and Community Group leadership, but he also has experience as an employed church and families worker. Ian is passionate about supporting, equipping and walking beside Christians from all walks of life. He is eager to support those in Christian leadership across varied contexts including church, para-church and educational contexts. Ian has particular interests in spiritual formation, burnout, personal wellbeing and life-long service, and ADHD.

In addition to his ministry experience Ian is also a teacher and has over fifteen years of teaching experience in both public and independent schools. Ian is also a committed husband and father to three.

Ian's commitment to excellence is demonstrated in his passion to be a fully equipped Consultant/Supervisor. To this end he has completed both a Graduate Certificate of Divinity - Christian Mentoring (Brisbane School of Theology) and a Graduate Certificate of Professional Supervision (St. Mark's National Theological Centre). These credentials ensure Ian's capability as both a Professional Supervisor and Mentor.
