

Amy Kuhn

SUPERVISOR

Amy grew up in a minister's home in the United States and began working in the local church there in 2003.

For the past 13 years she has lived in Sydney and served a range of ministries in local churches and at Moore College. She knows first-hand the joys, challenges, and sorrows of ministry. Her passion is to help those serving in ministry to make the most of the opportunities God has given to them through intentional reflection. She believes everyone needs a designated space to safely discuss their practice, feel supported and heard, and remain healthy in their work. Amy currently serves with her husband at St Matthias Centennial Park.
