

Teaching Series on Mark

Prepared and presented by Baptist Youth Ministries

MARK Series

The Book of Mark is a fascinating look at the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus.

It outlines a number of events that describe the words and actions of Jesus that require its readers to consider its meaning both for themselves, as well as our wider world.

In this resource we ask two critical questions:

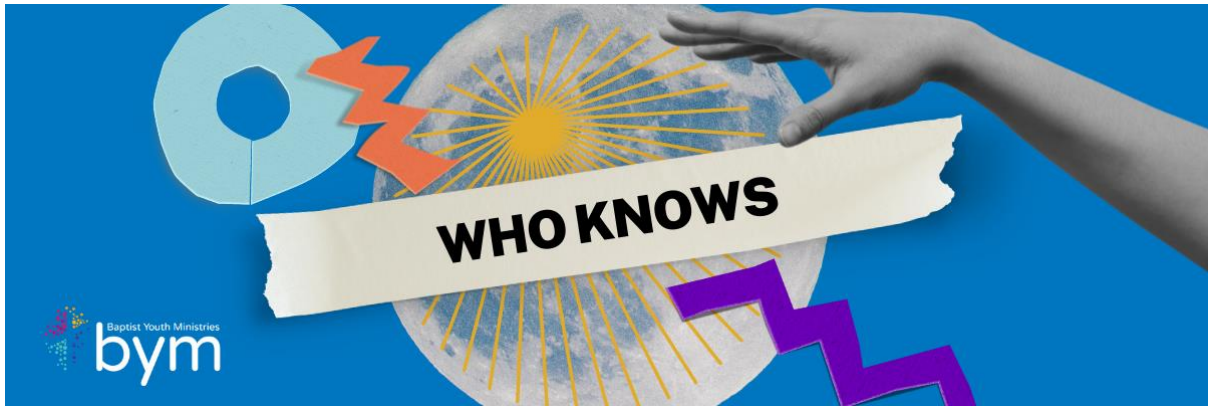

1. Who do you say Jesus is?
2. Who does Jesus say you are?

The videos are presented by members of the Baptist Youth Ministries team and can be used in small groups or as part of a larger youth event.

We not only trust this resource is a blessing to those leading in youth ministries but that it provides opportunities for young people to hear a fresh the message of Jesus and be challenged to place their faith in Him.

We encourage youth pastors and youth leaders to take the following approach in their preparation -

- Read the book of Mark in its entirety
- Watch the overview video provided by the Bible Project <https://bibleproject.com/explore/video/mark/>
- Pray that God would use the time to open hearts and minds to who Jesus is
- Read the section of Mark that is being covered by the talk
- Watch the related video to ensure you are familiar with the contents
- Consider the small group questions provided (and any additional ones that might be helpful)
- Contact the Baptist Youth Ministries team member with feedback and encouragement - as well to see how they could support the youth ministry at your church

Talk 1 – Steve Dixon - Passage – Mark 1: 1-11

Small Group Questions

1. What kinds of things do you include when you describe yourself to others?
2. Mark outlines a voice that describes Jesus as a family member, beloved, and pleasing to God. When have you heard these words? How did it make you feel?
3. How do people you know describe Jesus?
4. Who do you say Jesus is?
5. How has this changed over time?
6. What changes in your world if Jesus is the one sent by God to save the world?